"Monster Match is a great selection for third-to sixth-grade readers who enjoy books about friendship and supernatural events. Readers will be excited for the next book in this delightful Frankinschool Mysteries series."

Blue Ink Reviews

May 2023. Starred Review

"The plot delightfully explodes into an imaginative, hilarious, and ultimately dicey situation. But the story does more than simply engage and entertain; among other things it offers poignant lessons on forgiveness, friendship, and fairness.

Slightly spooky and utterly charming, young readers will enjoy every page of Frankinschool Mysteries: Monster Match."

Award-winning author of Once Upon a Time Not So Long Ago
"Relatable, funny, and just the right amount of creepy, kids will love Fred and his friend sand their life-affirming adventures."

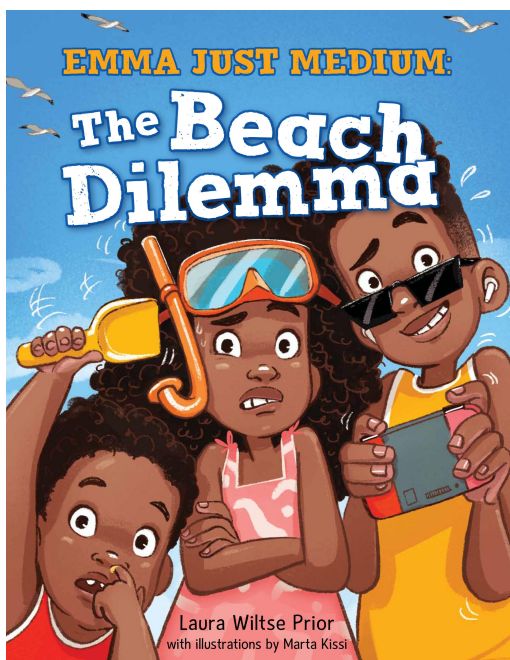

Glenys Nellist

Former teacher and author of The Little Mole series and more.
"Only Caryn Rivadeneira could manage to pair a monster with a message of grace and forgiveness. Frankinschool is simply brilliant...humorous and heartwarming."

FOREWORD Reviews

July 2023

"Light humor directs the chapters as Emma's real desires to be respected and yet to have fun war with each other and manifest in silly imitations of what she thinks grown-ups are like. Clear episodes capture her realistic feelings and infuse her childhood shortcomings with wisdom. In this family-driven chapter book The Beach Dilemma, a young girl learns that being in-between can be a gift – and the right place to be."
